Shree Hari has established such a tradition in our Sampradaya, which is not found anywhere in this world. Thus, it is a unique tradition.

The Astrology says that, nothing auspicious can be performed during Kamurta-Dhanur Maas. But our Shree Hari made this pious month so simple and lucid that, it has become daily routine of Satsangi devotee to perform Dhoon of Shree Swaminarayan Mahamantra for one hour early in the morning in any of our temple and thereby they ensure emancipation in their life. In this way, this month is very pious and beneficial for all of us.

Now there would be Season of Shakotsav. Samaiyo of Vasant Panchmi and Rangotsav would be celebrated in Shree Swaminarayan temple Muli in the pious company of H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj and H.H. Shri Lalji Maharaj. On the pious day of Fagan Sud-3, Patotsav of Almighty Lord Shree Narnarayandev would be celebrated with great fervour and enthusiasm in the pious company of Dharmkul. H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj has directed to perform divine Darshan of Patotsav-Samaiya of Shree Hari. Therefore, all the devotees and Haribhaktas must avail the benefit of divine Darshan of Samaiya.

Shikshapatri

The Epistle of Precepts
(based on Shatanand's Shikshapatri Arthadipika)
By Pravin S. Varsani

Text 56

My Atmanivedi devotees shall worship Shaligram or the images of Lord Shree Krishna made from stone or metal, with offerings of sandalwood, flowers, fruits etc. which are available at the time according to their capacity. They shall then recite the eight syllable holy Mantra of Lord Shree Krishna.

Note here that these Shlokas are not for only Atmanivedi Bhaktas – they apply to all of us. We may not be Atmanivedi Bhaktas yet, but we should live in such a way as to aspire to become Atmanivedi. This should be our goal and so these Shlokas should be noted equally.

Poojan of a Murti of Shree Krishna is here mentioned. Kshira Swami states the eight Lohas (metals): Survaram – Gold, Rajatam- silver, Taabhram- copper, Ritih-Brass, Kansyam- bronze, Trapu- tin, Sisum-lead and Chimaram – iron. Out of these, gold, silver, copper and brass should be used for making a Murti.

Atmanivedi Bhaktas are to perform Poojan of the said Murtis, Pratimas (pictorial forms of God) or Shaligram (special sacred stone, considered to be the natural form of Vishnu), using sandalwood, flowers etc., as they chant Mantras. Note that Shaligram Pooja is specifically mentioned for Brahmins and not for others caste members as well as women as explained by Skanda Purana and others. The reason for this is due to the prohibition of touch of Shaligram for others. Varaha Purana explains further : 'Lower caste members and women should not touch Shaligram as their touch is even more powerful than the Vajra (weapon of Indra).' Therefore they should perform Pratima

Pooja- worshipping a pictorial form of God.

Vaishnavacharya goes further distinguishing between those who are Dikshit (initiated into the sect) and those who are Adikshit: 'Brahmins, Kshatriyas, Vaishyas and Sat-Shudras have the right to perform worship of Shaligram. Those who are Avaisnav (irreligious) do not have that right.'

Bhargavachan Dipika and Bhavishyotar Purana explains further: 'The idol of God for worship should be as big as the thumb.' Vashishta says: 'One should worship a Murti made from stone, which is no bigger than four fingers-widths. A Murti made from a mineral substance should always be used by those desirous of spiritual bliss. It is explained that one should never worship a Murti that is broken or damaged in some way.

Now Shatanand goes on to explain Poojan using flowers; flowers which are dried out, from the ground, without a sweet fragrance, of bad odour, from a burial ground, which have already been offered to another deity, those that are impure, those containing mustard seeds and those that are unpleasant or old, should not be used for worshipping purposes. The best flowers are those that are grown and brought by the individual themselves. Those that are bought are inferior.

Tulsi and Bilva leaves are sacred and so should be used for worship. Such leaves, though old, can still be used for worship during the various time periods other than those explained in Vishnu Dharmotar: during a period of transition of the stars (Sankranti), at the end of the dark or bright half of the lunar month, at night time, early morning, late evening and at a time of an inauspicious astrological period.

One should always take the Tulsi Patra for worship by chanting the following Mantra:

Tulasyamrutajanmasi Sada Tvam
Keshavapriya |

Kehsavarthe Vichinvami VArda Bhava
Shobhane ||

'O Tulsi ! Born of divine nectar, who is forever beloved to Keshava. I take thee for Keshava therefore fulfil all desires.'

Those who perform Poojan must always be careful that they do not offend or insult

SHREE SWAMINARAYAN

God through various unacceptable acts. Our Shastras explain: 'It is offensive to go to temple in a vehicle, to go to temple wearing footwear, to not joyously celebrate a festival day, to not bow before the deities therein, to sit upon a seat higher than others, to company with women for even a small time at the temple, to touch God or perform Darshan of God with dirty hands of after going to the toilet, to salute (perform Namaskar) God with one hand, to use foul language in temples or in the presence of the Lord, to sit with one's legs outstretched, to sit with one's legs tied together, to sleep or lie, to eat in a temple during Sabha, to speak falsely, to cry out loudly, to test somebody, to quarrel or argue in temples (readers should take particular note of this!), to look repeatedly at women or to touch them, to speak harshly, to not perform Upavaas (fasting) even though one is capable, to eat that which has not been offered to the Lord first, to pass wind in the presence of the Lord, to sit with one leg over the other, to say things which are unacceptable, to speak highly of oneself, and to sit with one's back facing the Lord.' All these acts are offensive and an insult to God.

Those with love for God, who commit such an offensive act (unintentionally or otherwise) can nullify their sins by performing an Upavaas, performing Dandavat (prostration) and chanting the Kshamayachan Mantra (as given earlier)- 'O Lord! I may have committed thousands of insults during the day and night. Please forgive me, accepting me as thy servant.' These are the insults, 'big and small that man may commit. It is our duty to make sure we have an understanding of these and thereby prevent further future insults.

Shatanand then explains that Shree Krushnam Ashtakshar Mantra should be chanted. Parashar Muni explains the Vidhi for chanting the Mantra: 'After bathing, one should sit on an Asana which is clean and with a steady focussed mind, observing Moun Vrata (vow of silence) they shall inwardly chant the Mantra as they meditate upon the Mantra in their heart. Mantra where the lips do not move (inward chanting) is called Upashum and Japa is considered the best. One should not perform Mantra Japa walking, laughing, looking around (the head should be still), talking, with the head uncovered, with one leg over the other and with their hand not still. They should chant with a Mala, and both their hand and Mala covered or in a Gomukhi. Their fore-finger (Tarjani) should not touch the Mala and they should circulate the Mala with their thumb (Angushta).'

Padma Purana explains the various types of Malas: 'The use of Darbha (special sacred wood) Mala will derive Atma Gnaan (knowledge of the self). A Rudraksha Mala will lead to the fulfilment of all desires.' 'Vaishnavas should always use a Tulsi Mala as it will ultimately bring Moksha,' explains Gautamiya Tantra.

In Acharmadhava, Prajapati further explains, 'A Mala with 108 beads is Uttam-the best; one with 54 beads is Madhyam-mediocre; and one with 27 beads is Kanishta-worsht.' 'If in some exceptional circumstance a Mala cannot be found, one should chant using the sections of one's fingers.'

Now Shatanand explains the greatness of Shree Krishna Mantra. He firstly disputes the saying where Krishna Mantra has no value, as it has no foundation in the Vedas. Shree Krishna mantra is the very breath of the Vedas. The Puranas, whose roots lie with the Vedas glorify the Krishna Mantra without dispute. For this reason, such statement has no validity.

Other Mantras are comparatively weak explains Shatanand. Furthermore – Itihaas puranani Panchaman Vedamischaraha – 'The Itihaases and Puranas are the fifth Veda.' Thus the oneness of the Vedas and Puranas is glorified. In this way the Krishna Mantra is related to the Vedas. Manusmriti and Mahabharat explain: Itihaas puranabhyaam Vedam Samupabrunhayeda- 'The Itihaases and Puranas glorify the greatness of the Vedas.' One should never find difference in the Vedas and Puranas for they are considered as one. The Mantras in the Puranas are therefore to be considered as the Mantras of the Vedas.

Naradiya Purana goes on further to say, 'I find the explanations of the Puranas to be superior than the Vedas. O Devi! The purport of the Vedas is in this way to be found in the Puranas. Those who do not understand this greatness of the Puranas are forever reborn in the wombs of beasts and birds, even though they may display sensual control and righteous qualities. Indeed, Shree Krishna Mantra will derive greater fruits than chanting Vedic Mantras.'

Vishnudharmotar explains, 'Those who have chanted the blessed name Vishnu and who understand fully what it means to chant as thus, have acquired the knowledge of the Vedas – including it's Anga-Upangas (associated parts).' 'Those who have even spoken the two syllable word Hari have studied the Rigveda, Yajurveda, Samaveda and Atharvaveda.' Padma Purana explains: Vishnoraykauknamapi Sarvavedadhikam Matam- 'Vishnu's one name is considered greater than even all the Vedas.'

Kapil Gita says, 'Those who have spoken God's name have performed Tapa (penance), Homa (sacrificial offerings) and Snaan (bathing).' Shreemad Bhagwat and Skanda Purana explain, 'Any difficulties faced can be immediately overcome by chanting the name of God and singing his praise.'

In Haribhaktavilasa, Yama Raja explains, 'Those who chant the name of God are never visited by difficulties and my servants of death.' Vishnu Purana explains, 'By chanting the name of Lord Vasudeva, one attains the riches of Swarga Loka, from where they never have to return.' Brahmanda Purana adds, 'The fruits derived from chanting a thousand names of God can be derived from chanting Shree Krishna's name just once.'

Vishnudharmotarsays:

Krushneti Mangalam Nama Yasya Vachi
Pravartate |

Bhasmibhavanti Tsyashu
Mahapatakkotayaha ||

'Those whose speech resound the auspicious name Shree Krishna, immediately burn a million great sins.'

Narsinha Purana explains, 'Those who daily chant Krishna thrice are freed from Narak.' Similarly Garuda Purana and Padma Purana explain, 'By chanting Krishna Mantra, one becomes free from Sansara (wordly life).'

Skanda Purana explains: Naamanam Mukhyatamam Nama Krushnakhyam Mae Paramtapa – 'My name Krishna, is the greatest of names. Those who chant this name of mine become free from sin. To do so is the greatest of penance.' Vishnu Rahasya explains, 'Shree Krishna mantra is the best way to save oneself from death. Therefore

S a n j i v a n i N a m a
Krushnakhyamavadharya – chant the immortal name of Krishna.' Vaishnavchintamani explains, 'Even if Shree Krishna is uttered once jokingly, one is saved.'

Shatanand Muni then explains that those who dispute the greatness of God's name are great sinners who are destined for the hells. Such people can never attain Mukti.

Hari-Nama-Stotra or Hari-Nama-Sankirtan are the best and easiest ways to Moksha in Kali Yuga. Shree Sahajanand Swami, whose purpose was to offer salvation to the masses believed greatly in Kirtan Bhakti. He himself gave us the greatest mantra of all the Maha Mantra- for ultimate redemption of mankind: Ohm Swaminarayanaiya Namaha. Using this Mantra or by just chanting or singing 'Swaminarayan' one becomes free from sins accumulated through thousands of births. Just as many achieved the state of Samadhi (highest Yogic State) by chanting Swaminarayan, we too can achieve such state through chanting Swaminarayana.

DHANUR MAAS

- Sadhu Purushottamprakashdas (Jetalpurdham)

According to Astrology, the Moon stays for two days in one Rashi and the Sun stays for one month in one Rashi. When the Sun enters Dhan Rashi, the month from 16th December to 14th January is said to be Dhanarak. Dhan means Dhan-Rashi, Ark means Sun. Guru is Adhipati (Dominant) Graha (Planet) of Dhan-Rashi. That means Surya and Guru stays together in one Rashi for one month. Both Surya and Guru are very bright Graha (planets) and therefore there is possibility of Tejodwesh (Conflict of Power). Due to this Tejodwesh Guru is weakened and therefore it is prohibited as per the scriptures to perform and organize any auspicious occasions during this month.

Bhagwan Vishnu (Narayan) is Adhipati of Guru. The weakening of the Guru has its adverse effect upon the deities and Adhistata Bhagwan Vishnu. Bhagwan Vishnu is symbol of Sattvik-Guna. Resultantly Tamasik-Guna becomes pre-dominant. Therefore our Rishi-Munis and the sages have asked us to perform Pooja-Bhajan-Stuti Path, Pura:charan, Vishnu Yaag, Naam Kirtan of Bhagwan Vishnu (Narayan). When we perform all this during the critical time then Bhagwan Vishnu (Narayan) becomes very much pleased with us. And therefore, our forefathers used to perform Vishnu Sahastra Namavali and Path of Bhagwat Gita.

Co-incidentally it is the time of the month of Magsar as per the Hindu Calander. Bhagwan Shree Vishnu has stated that, among all the months, Magsar is His Own Form. Moreover, Guru Brihaspati- being Adhipati of Dhan Rashi in Surya, this month is considered to be the best month for acquiring knowledge and learning new skills. Therefore Bhagwan Shree Krishna and Baldevji learned 14 Vidya and 64 Kala and Dhanur-Vidya from Guru Sandipani in Ujjain. Since then another name of this month is Dhanur-Maas.

Due to stay of Guru Brihaspati in Surya, our body remains under the impact of the Sun and therefore also it is considered to be the best time to start learning activities. It is for this reason that, during this month we also offer pen, note-book, slate, school bag etc. alongwith Bhojan-Thaal in front of the deities in our temple.

Dhan-Rasi is the last stage of Dakshinayan and as the Sun moves out of Dhan-Rashi and moves towards Uttarayan, it is also known as Uttarayan. On 14th January Surya moves from Dhan-Rashi to Makar-Rashi, which is known as Makar-Sankranti. The power of the Surya moving from the South to the North is considered to be very strong. The sun-rays of this period has got very powerful and positive effect upon the electrons, protons and neutrons of our body and therefore, tradition of kite-flying activity under the Sun has started so that our body gets the healthy light and heat from the Sun.

Our Istdev Shree Hari stayed as Nilkanthvarni in the village Loj for ten months. During the Dhanur Maas, the saints were taught Astang-Yog and Pooja-Kirtan, Bhajan, Katha, Satsang etc. were also performed. Following the tradition established by Shree Hari and also with a view to avail the benefits shown by our Rishi-Munis and sages, today we perform Dhoon of Shree Swaminarayan Mahamantra early in the morning in our temples.

In Kaliyug- Kirtan-Dhoon- are considered to be the best means of worship. Like Garba of Navrati of Gujarat, Dhoon of early morning during Dhanur Maas in temples of Shree Narnarayandev Diocese is popular all over the world. This pious tradition has been strengthened by H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj and even today the whole Dharmkul grants divine Darshan from Mangala Aartitill Rajbhog Aarti.

Pride of Sampradaya

Devotee Shri Vedant Amishbhai Bhagat (aged 10 years) the grandson of the devotee Shri Dineshbhai Bhagat performed Group Tabla Vaadan alongwith 320 students of Saptak School of Music for one and half hour continuously. Appreciating this, the prestigious institutions such as Guinness Book of World Records, India Book of Records, Record Holder of Republic, Limca Book of Records and World Amazing Records have honoured and issued Certificate to the devotee Shri Vedant. H.H. Shri Lalji Maharaj has been very much pleased with this and has blessed the devotee for his progress and overall development.

MANKI OF MANIGAR

- Natubhai B. Patel (Rajpurwala-Canada)

Nand Saints have stated in the Scriptures that if any person remembers during his last time Katha-Varta, Kirtan-Bhakti and Leela-vicharan of Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan, then he gets emancipation in his life. Similarly, if any person also remembers or cherishes Nand Saints, Places and things of Prasadi, Manki horse etc. then he gets emancipation in his life. Accordingly, let us talk about Manki horse of Shreeji Maharaj:

“માણકીએ ચઢ્યા રે મોહન વનમાળી,

These words sung by the devotees and Haribhaktas in the serene and peaceful atmosphere in front of Shree Rangmahal Ghanshyam Maharaj of Kalupur temple, have great impact upon the listeners. This divine Manki horse, who dedicated the whole life at the lotus-like feet of Shreeji Maharaj became the leader among all the animals in rendering divine services.

Kathi Darbar of Jasdan of Saurashtra had one beautiful mare. One Miyana of Kachchh wanted to steal away this mare. As a part of his conspiracy, he kept his son as care-taker of the stable wherein this mare was kept. After some time, the son took away the mare and came to Kachchh. One day when this mare was grazing at the sea-shore, one divine horse came out of the sea and after some time, this mare gave birth to horse – who is none other than Manki horse.

After some time, Manki horse was purchased by Rao of Bhuj, he got his grand-daughter married with the son of Manubha of Minpar. He offered the Manki horse alongwith all other things to his grand-daughter, on the marriage occasion. In the beginning of Shravan Maas of Samvat 1868 Shreeji Maharaj graced the Darbar of Dada Khacar in Gadhda. Maharaj called Sura Khachar and told him, “We have heard about the praise of Manki horse. Inquire about this, as we want this Manki horse.” Sura Khachar searched for it and after some time, he found that Manki horse was owned by Manubha of Manipar.

Kayaji Babu of Bhensdad was the friend of Sura Khachar and this Kayaji Babu knew Manubha very well. Accordingly, on the pious day of Shravan Sud-7 Samvat 1868 Sura Khachar took Shreeji Maharaj and Kayaji Babu at the residence of Manubhai in village Minpar. The moment, Shreeji Maharaj graced the verandah of the residence, the whole atmosphere got charged with the divinity. Manki horse responded the divine arrival very positively, as if they were meeting after many many years!!! There were tears of pleasure in the eyes of Manki horse!!! Manki horse starting jumping joyously. She could prevent expression of her exuberant joy and pleasure.

Manubha was not present at home. His ten years daughter Monghiba was present. She watched everything. She also noticed the change in behaviour and body language of Manki horse. Monghiba offered the seat to Maharaj, Kaya Babu and Sura Khachar.

After some time, when Monghiba asked for the reason of their arrival, Kaya Babu told her that, Shreeji Maharaj wanted Manki horse and therefore they had come there to meet Manubha. Immediately Monghiba replied that, for that, there is no need of permission of Manubha and that they can take Manki horse. She went inside, brought Kanku offered and applied Chandlo of Kanku in the forehead of Maharaj and Manki Horse and handed over the reins of Manki horse to Maharaj. Shreeji Maharaj was very much pleased with this. Maharaj blessed her that one day she would become a queen and also offered Rs.60/- as Prasadi in token. Later on Monghiba was married with king Sangramsinh of Gondal.

Maharaj brought Manki horse to Gadhda. From that day onwards, Manki horse became the shadow of Maharaj. Wherever Maharaj would be, Manki would be there and wherever Manki horse would be, Maharaj would be there. Manki horse was very sharp, intelligent and agile. She could understand the desire and wish of Maharaj even without his expressing it. She had also developed ardent relations with Ladubha and Jivuba, as she had recognized the ardent worship of these ladies devotees towards Maharaj. She could foresee any natural calamity or any bad event. Sadguru Premanand Swami could not stop his pen praising Manki horse and its behaviour.

SHREE SWAMINARAYAN

With the constant touch and company of Shreeji Maharaj, Manki horse had developed divinity in her. Therefore, she could transform even the robbers like Joban Pagi, as the devotees and Haribhaktas of Maharaj. When Shreeji Maharaj returned to Akshardham, Manki horse could not hide her misery and unhappiness. She had abandoned the meals and would not drink even water. She was found crying all the day so much so that, even the tears had dried up upon her face. Exactly on 13th day, Manki Horse passed away to Akshardham. This divine Mukta left all the saints and devotees of the whole Gadhda, crying like anything.

ધન્ય છે આ માણકીને, જેણે માણ્યા મહારાજને.

The last progeny of Manki horse was living in our Muli temple.

Remaining under Vachan of Hari

- Chandrakant Mohanlal Pathak, Gandhinagar

Once Shreeji Maharaj said to Mukund Brahmchari, "Brahmchari! The people of this world become very much unhappy when they lose their only son." Mukund Brahmchari said, "Yes, Maharaj. The life after such an unfortunate incident becomes unbearable. It appears darkness everywhere. But at last, Time cures and heals all woes."

During their talk, Maharaj remembered the devotee Durlabhram of Vadodara, who had lost his only son. Shreeji Maharaj had graced the house of the devotee when his son passed away. The devotee family warmly welcomed Shreeji Maharaj and offered the meals to Maharaj. Umiyaben, the wife of the devotee Durlabhram had worn very rich and costly clothes. There was smile on her face as if nothing had happened in the family. Devotee Umiyaben was very much happy with the arrival of Shreeji Maharaj. While accepting the meals, Shreeji Maharaj asked her, "Are you not unhappy when your only son has passed away?" then devotee Umiyaben replied, "Maharaj, my son has passed away to Akshardham. It means You have granted him more happiness than here. Then why should I be unhappy?"

In the evening, the Satsang Sabha was conducted in the village. Maharaj graced the Sabha and granted divine Darshan to the devotees and other people of the village. In the Sabha, Shreeji Maharaj called the devotees Durlabhram and Bechar Bhatt. These two devotees had not good terms between them and hence they never called each other. Shreeji Maharaj knew this. Therefore, Shreeji Maharaj called them in the Sabha and tried to persuade them for compromise and to establish good relations between the two devotees. But the devotee Durlabhram did not agree to it and left the Sabha immediately. Shreeji Maharaj did not like this attitude of Durlabhram. Then Shreeji Maharaj graced Vadatal.

After some time, devotee Durlabhram and Umiyaben came to Vadatal on the pious day of Ramnavmi. There devotee Durlabhram developed sickness and he was advised immediate and complete bed-rest. Day by day the health of the devotee was deteriorating. Devotee Umiyaben came to Shreeji Maharaj and narrated about the sickness of her husband. Shreeji Maharaj told her, "It appears that, your husband would not get cured. So you should render the services as much as you can." Devotee Umiyaben became desolate. She said to Maharaj, "I am happy in all the conditions, wherein you put me. But the people of the world would abuse me like anything. But if it is your desire then I would lead the life as an ardent devotee." Shreeji Maharaj was very much pleased with the words of the devotee Umiyaben. Maharaj blessed her that, her husband would be cured of. After some days, devotee Durlabhram was cured of the illness.

There is much difference between the understanding and intelligence of Durlabhram and his wife Umiyaben. Devotion and worship of the devotee Umiyaben were the best and therefore Maharaj was always very much happy with the devotee. The scriptures and the saints advise us to always remain obedient and under the directions of Bhagwan as real happiness lies in the words of the saint.

Instructions to Haribhaktas visiting and participating Dasabdi Mahotsav of Shree Swaminarayan temple, Nathdwara

With the directions and blessings of H.H. Shri Acharya 1008 Shri Koshalendraprasadji Maharaj and H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj, Dasabdi Mahotsav of Shree Swaminarayan temple, Nathdwara, would be celebrated from 28/01/2012 to 01/02/2012. on this occasion Patotsav of Thakorji, Abhishek, Annakutotsav, Shrimad Bhagwat Dashm Skand Panchyanh Parayan, Tridinatmak Hariyaag etc. programmes would be organized and celebrated with great fervour and enthusiasm. All the devotees and Haribhaktas who intend to participate and visit this Dasabdi Mahotsav may inform in advance about their arrival so that beautiful arrangements for their residence can be made. Remaining under Vachan of Hari Vachan of Shree Hari about importance of Mulidham

- Gordhanbhai V. Sitapara (Hiravadi-Bapunagar)

Mulidham is a famous place in Zalavad area in Saurashtra. Bhagwan Suryanarayan, who dispels darkness with bright rays, resides here in the form and name of Mandavray. The river Bhogavo flows in the Western side of this village and goes towards its Northern side. There is Alark well of Prasadi in Mulidham. The main importance of this Mulidham is that, Shreeji Maharaj had got prepared a very beautiful temple through Brahmanand Swami. On the pious day of Maha Sud-5 (Vasant Panchmi) Samvat 1879 Shree Hari has invoked the idol images of Radhakrishna and Harikrishna. To the left side of the central temple, idol images of Ranchhod and Trikamrai are invoked and similarly in the same year on the pious day of Vaisakh Sud Baras, Shree Hari has invoked the idol images of Dharmdev and Bhaktimata and to its right side is invoked the idol image of Nilkanth Shivji.

Shree Hari has said, "Oh devotees! Bhagwan Shree Krishna likes this place more than Dwarika and I also like it more among all the temples. Bhagwan Shree Krishna has taken bath in the pious river Bhogavo. Moreover, Bhagwan Shree Krishna and I have taken bath in the Alark well. Therefore, I like it very much. Both these places are very pious. Therefore all of you should perform Snan with this understanding. The devotees who perform Darshan of Shree Radhakrishna and my idol image, those who would perform Magh-Snan in river Bhogavo, those who would offer Brahm Bhojan to the saints and Varnis, they would realize all their wishes and desires. By performing divine Darshan of Shree Radhakrishna, one would get the fruit of performing pilgrimage to Dwarika. By performing divine Darshan of Shree Radhakrishnadev on the pious day of MaghSud Pancham (Vasant Panchmi), devotees would get the fruit of performing Darshan of Tirth-yatra for ten times (Chardham Yatra)."

Shree Hari has stated in Adhyay-92 of 'Shree Harikrishna Leelamrit-Uttarardh', "The Mul (root) of all pilgrimage is this village and therefore this village is popular as 'Muli'. In Bhogavo resides the hidden Ganga and therefore those who would perform Snan in Bhogavo they would get fruit of performing Snan in holy river Ganga. The famous places of pilgrimage such as Ayodhya, Mathura, Kashi, Prayag, Gaya etc. reside in this Mulidham. I have asked to perform two Samaiya of Vasant Panchmi and Janmastmi in this pious Mulidham. Therefore all the devotees and Haribhaktas should invariably perform divine Darshan of this place on these two days."

Shree Hari has told Ramabhai Raja of Mulipur that, "Oh Ramabhai! We reside in Darbar of Dada Khachar. Similarly we also reside in Mulipur in Radhakrishnadev temple. Because I like this place very much."

This pious place Mulidham has sanctified by the lotus like feet of Shree Hari and many Nand saints. Shree Hari has performed many Leela-Charitra in this pious place. The saints, Brahmins and devotees have been offered the meals at this place. The beautiful three storey Haveli with beautiful wooden carvings is also a place of performing divine Darshan. There are many Things of Prasadi in this Haveli. Shaligram Bhagwan whose poojan has been performed by Brahmanand Swami, Bajoth of Prasadi which was used by Shree Hari while taking bath, Darbhargadh of Prasadi, Gyan Wav showed by Shree Hari in the form of Shepherd, Shree Brahm-Mahol are other places worth performing divine Darshan.

Even today H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj and Dharmkul grace this place on the pious occasions of Samaiya of Vasant Panchmi and Janmastmi and grant happiness of Rangotsav to thousands of devotees and Haribhaktas. 39th Prakatyotsav of H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj was also celebrated in Mulidham. In this year on Saturday 28/01/2012, Samaiyo of Vasant Panchmi would be celebrated with great fervour and enthusiasm. On this pious day of Patotsav of Shree Radhakrishnadev would be celebrated in Muli temple. So all the devotees and Haribhaktas may avail the benefit of this divine Utsav.

SHREE SWAMINARAYAN MUSEUM

On Fagan Sud-3 and 24/02/2012 our Museum would complete one year. On that day H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj and H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj would perform divine Mahapooja and alongwith Brahm-Bhojan, there would be celebration of one year. A number of devotees-visitors of Museum arrived from Desh and overseas countries, have praised our Museum very much. They have also praised H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj for such a divine gift to our Sampradaya. After performing divine Darshan in Kalupur temple during the pious Dhanur Maas, H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj performs Pradakshina of Museum. Even today on 27/12/2011, when this is being written, H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj performed divine Darshan of Shree Narnarayandev invoked in our Museum and while returning home, one devotee came running and requested H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj to stop for a while as students coming from Ghatkopar-Mumbai wanted to perform divine Darshan. It took some time, and H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj waited for 10-15 minutes in the premises of the Museum and at last children came and performed divine Darshan and obtained the blessings of H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj.

Opinions of visiting Devotees and Haribhaktas

It is essential for every devotee to visit and watch Museum to understand Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan with correct understanding and perspective. Almighty Lord can do everything. By creating this Museum, H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj has blessed all of us. Therefore, now it is our pious duty to preserve our divine Museum. Hence all the devotees and Haribhaktas are ardently requested to render their services. (Kirit C. Patel, Ahmedabad 04/12/2011)

One feels divinity and serenity while performing Darshan of Shree Swaminarayan Museum. By performing divine Darshan of so many Things of Prasadi at one place, which is unique in this world, one gets all his sins burnt and ensures the place in Akshardham. (Sd/-illegible 17/12/2011)

While performing divine Darshan of Museum, I felt as if Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan Himself is granting Darshan to all of us. The whole Satsang and Sampradaya shall always remain indebted to H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj, who granted this divine gift in the form of Shree Swaminarayan Museum to all the future generations. (Bhikhubhai Thakkar-Cleveland Ohio)

It is never too late. Now I have decided to perform divine Darshan of Shree Swaminarayan Museum as many times as I can. Earlier I used to think that, it would have been better if I would have been born in any foreign country. But after performing divine Darshan of Things of Prasadi in Museum, I feel myself proud that, I am born in Kalupur Ahmedabad, where there is divine temple of Almighty Lord Shree

Narnarayandev and place of my in-laws is in Naranpura, where our divine Museum is situated. Even one hundred births would not be sufficient to write exhaustively about divine Museum. Really H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj and H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj have granted us divine gift in the form of Shree Swaminarayan Museum. Jay Shree Swaminarayan. (Vaishali Soni, Naranpura, Ahmedabad)

With the blessings of Almighty Lord, I have got the opportunity to perform divine Darshan of Museum. I felt divinity while performing Darshan of Museum. (Sd/-illegible)

It is something New and it is unique and we have learnt more about Satsang and it took six hours to see all evening Rupees we all spend it is worth. (Dhanjibhai Hirani, London)

Our Group and Family members were thrilled to have Darshan of all of the Prasadi items. The hospitality and cleanliness were above our expectations. The vibration that we received during the Darshan and in particular main meditation hall were exceptional and gave us pleasure of being close to our Swaminarayan Bhagwan. This experience will be memorable throughout our life. Jay Shree Swaminarayan (unknown)

It was amazing, something worth coming back again. It's a great idea for the younger generation. Jay Shree Swaminarayan.

This is one of the best Museums, I have ever seen in my whole life. There are lots of such things which will encourage me in my life for better vision. Jay Shree Swaminarayan

WHO IS REAL DEVOTEE?

- Shastri Haripriyadasji (Gandhinagar)

Once Shree Ghanshyam Maharaj became sick. Ghanshyam Maharaj developed fever for two days. His friends Venu-Madhav became worried about Ghanshyam Maharaj and came to meet Ghanshyam Maharaj. Venu-Madhav came along with their mother Laxmiba. When Laxmiba saw Ghanshyam Maharaj, she said that, little Ghanshyam had developed Baliya-Dev (Small Pox). She advised not to give meals to little Ghanshyam for 20-25 days and also not to take bath during these days. Even Chandaba, the sister-in-law of Bhaktimata, who had come there, advised the same.

But little Ghanshyam did not agree. He said to Bhaktimata, "Being a Brahmin, How can I remain without taking bath even for a single day?" Little Ghanshyam asked Bhaktimata to give him water from the well so that he can take bath. Bhaktimata had faith in the words of little Ghanshyam and therefore she gave him two buckets of water. Little Ghanshyam took bath and became fresh. With the coolness of the water, he got cured of Baliya-Dev.

So friends, little Ghanshyam Maharaj did not believe in superstition of not taking bath or meals for 20-25 days during the time of Baliya-dev. He followed the rule of nature to purify the body and got himself cured of the disease. Similarly all of us should not cherish any superstition and should follow the rules of nature. We would be real devotees only when we would cherish strong faith in Bhagwan and then only we would be called the real devotees.

BRAVE HARIBHAKTA

- Sadhu Shrirangdas (Gandhinagar)

હરિજન સાચા રે, જે ઉરમાં હિંમત રાખે,
વિપતે વચ્ચી રે, કેદી દીન વચન નવ ભાખે,

શ્રીંગ ભાલવાટિકા
SATSANG BALVATIKA

- Compiler Shastri Harikehsavdasji
(Gandhinagar)

તન ધન જાતારે, અંતરમાં શોક ન આણે.

These words of Sadguru Brahmanand Swami are not uttered for any common man. It was the time when the ardent devotees had to suffer a lot. They had to risk their life and their livelihood. They had to suffer great miseries and tortures from the society, too. Here is one such real incident from the time of Shree Hari.

Jamadar Kesarmiya of Wadhvan State became ardent devotee of Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan. From the time he became the devotee, he led his life in such a manner, as if it is meant for Bhagwan only. But Bhanji Mehta, the Minister of the Wadhvan State cherished hatred and jealousy towards Shree Hari. And therefore he used to harass Kesar Miya. Many a times Bhanji Mehta used to abuse Shree Hari in the presence of Kesar Miya. Then Kesar Miya would tell him :

“हे गुना करने वालो

कयामत के दिन को मत भूलो ।

अगर चाहीए जहन्नत

तो खुदा की बंदगी करना मत भूलो ॥

Once a Brahmin came to the office of Bhanji Mehta. Kesar Miya was present there. The Brahmin came and asked for some money from Bhanji Mehta as he wanted to perform pilgrimage to Dwarika- the place of pilgrimage of Lord Shree Krishna. Then Bhanji put a condition that, he should abuse Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan and then only he would get the money he wanted. When Kesar

Miya heard this, he threatened the Brahmin not to tell anything wrong about Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan. Bhanji Mehta interrupted him and said to the Brahmin that, Kesar Miya is a servant in his office and therefore he need not be worried about him. Again Bhanji Mehta put the condition that, the Brahmin should abuse Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan, if he wanted the money.

The moment the Brahmin uttered the foul words for Shree Hari, Kesar Miya struck his sword with its cover upon the head of the Brahmin and the Brahmin fell down and became unconscious. Immediately Bhanji Mehta dismissed Kesar Miya from his job of Jamadar of Wadhvan State and asked him to leave the Wadhvan State. Kesar Miya, being the ardent devotee of Shree Hari, was happy to leave the State of Wadhvan, because whatever he did, he had done for Shree Hari.

The queen of Wadhvan State heard about the dismissal of Kesar Miya. She knew Kesar Miya very well, as his father and forefathers had also rendered their faithful services to the Wadhvan State. When she came to know that, it was the fault of the minister Bhanji Mehta, she immediately cancelled the order of dismissal of Kesar Miya, removed Bhanji Mehta from the post of Minister and gave him promotion to Kesar Miya. When Shree Hari heard about the whole incident, he became very happy with Kesar Miya and blessed him.

So, dear devotees, being the ardent devotees, all of us should be courageous and brave like Kesar Miya. We should never tolerate any wrong words uttered towards our Sampradaya or Shree Hari because Shree Hari is always with all of us. If we would be courageous like Kesar Miya, Shree Hari would be very much happy with us.

DIVINE ROPE STRETCHING

- Shastri Harijivan Swami (Mahant, Himatnagar temple)

Almighty Bhagwan is only One, whereas there are crores of people calling Him and worshipping Him. Now sometimes there is competition among the devotees and Haribhaktas to invoke and please Almighty Bhagwan and ardent devotion and Bhakti are the dominant factors and feelings among these devotees and Haribhaktas.

Once Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan graced the village Mankuva. Devotees like Gangaram Malla had arrived from Bhuj to perform divine Darshan of Shree Hari. In the Sabha organized on the occasion devotee Gangarambhai ardently requested, "Oh Maharaj! Please grace the village Bhuj." On the other hand, the devotees of village Mankuva ardently requested Shree Hari to stay there in Mankuva.

WAVE OF PLEASURE

Therefore, Shree Hari asked the devotees each of Bhuj and Mankuva to play the game of rope-stretching. There would be five devotees on each side and they would stretch the rope towards their side. Those who would succeed in stretching and taking away the rope towards them and would cross the line marked in the centre, they would be winner and Shree Hari would grace their village. In the game, the devotees of Bhuj were winner and therefore Shree Hari graced the village Bhuj. The devotees of Mankuva village offered Sukhdi in breakfast to Shree Hari and the devotees who had arrived from Bhuj.

'ANAND IS FORM OF PARAMATMA'

- Compiled by Kotak Varsha Natvarlal, Ghodasar)

ભક્તિસુધા BHAKTI-SUDHA

PURIFICATION OF OUR MEALS

- Sankhya Yogi Kokilaba (Surendranagar)

Do you feel joy when you perform Bhakti? Yes. This Anand (Joy) is Form of Paramatma. It comprises of 'Sat' 'Chit' and 'Anand'. Among these, 'Sat' is visible whereas 'Chit' and 'Anand' is invisible. However, all of them can be experienced. There is 'Sat' in inanimate objects but there is no 'Chit' and 'Anand' in these objects. In Jiv (soul) there are 'Sat' and 'Chit' in visible form but 'Anand' is in invisible form. But if you achieve Unity with Paramatma then you will feel this 'Anand' which is divine in nature. But one has to strive for to achieve this divine 'Anand'. Moreover, there are two types of 'Anand':

i) Sadhanjanya Anand and ii) Swayamsiddha Anand. Nobody would deny to get 'Anand' because everybody on this earth is in search of joy, everybody wants to be happy in this life. But this joy and happiness are Sadhanjanya Anand and it can be achieved from the means of this world.

Whereas Swayamsiddha Anand can be achieved by removing our mind from the worldly desires and wishes. This type of Swayamsiddha Anand can be achieved with the help of Siddhas, Sadhus, Saints and Sages. By achieving this type of Anand which is divine in nature, our mind and heart feel serenity. We get peaceful sleep. We can achieve this divine happiness by performing Bhakti and Sadhana. For that one has to lead his/her life as prescribed by the scriptures. Our Scriptures state that, we should lead our life with Dharma, Artha, Kaam and Moksha. Thus, journey of our life begins and it should begin from Dharma which ultimately leads all of us to Moksha i.e. emancipation. And during this journey which is divine in nature, we get both Artha and Kaam. Therefore, all of us should live our life while keeping Dharma in the centre of all our activities. Our thoughts, words and actions should be regulated by the ethics and human values and also by the divine feelings such as compassion, love, Bhakti etc.

By leading our in this way, we would experience that, the worldly pleasures are not the real requirements of human soul. It is noble qualities and feelings, which uplift our soul to divinity helping us to get emancipation which is the ultimate goal of our life.

From the ancient times, it has been prescribed in the scriptures and practised by the noble persons, to keep secret about Bhajan (worship) and Bhojan (meals). If we are required to keep secret about the meals in our home, how can we take meals outside our house in the market or at the public places? If our meals are pure, our mind and heart would be pure. And if our meals are impure our mind and heart would also get spoiled. Therefore, it has been prescribed by the scriptures that, we should accept only those meals which are pure and Sattvik. It purifies not only our body and mind but also our inner self.

The nature and thinking of the person who is preparing the meals, has also its impact upon the meals which results into the consequential similar kind of effects upon the mind and body of the persons who take such meals. Therefore, our kitchen should also be kept neat and clean. During the ancient times, only the ladies members were permitted entry in the kitchen. But now in the modern times, the maidservant, servants and other outsiders also enter in the kitchens. This is not good for the health of the family members. Therefore, this should be prevented as much as we can.

The meals which are prepared while chanting the name of Shree Hari and while cherishing noble feelings has its healthy impact not only upon the meals but also upon the mind of the people who take the meals. If we would worship and chant the name of Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan while preparing the meals and while accepting the meals, we would develop noble qualities and elements in our body and mind which would be divine in nature. These divine qualities and elements would also purify our body and mind and as a result thereof, we would never be sick and weak, physically and mentally.

Therefore, purity of our meals is very much essential. It is first and foremost condition to lead a spiritual and noble life. Therefore, all of us should see to it that, our meals are pure and Sattvik.

Dhanur Maas Dhoon Mahotsav in Ahmedabad temple

In the pious company of the Almighty Lord Shree Narnarayandev and Dharmkul and in the pious presence of the saints and Haribhaktas, pious Dhanur Maas Dhoon Mahotsav started in Ahmedabad temple from 16/12/2011. In this cold winter season, everyone is found making efforts to protect his body by covering the body with woollen clothes. However, in our temples with dome and in Hari-temple as well as in the houses of the devotees and Haribhaktas, devotees are performing divine Shree Swaminarayan Mahamantra Akhand Dhoon.

With the directions of H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj and with the inspiration of Mahant Shastri Swami Harikrishnadasji and with the co-operation of Kothari Parshad Digambar Bhagat, J.P. Swami, Brahmchari Poojari Rajeshwaranandji, J.K. Swami, Muni Swami and Ram Swami, beautiful Dhanur Maas Dhoon Mahotsav is going on. By rendering monthly Dhoon, many devotees and Haribhaktas have been rendering their services. First of all Dhoon of the whole Dharmkul (family of H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj) and the saints is noted.
